

From The Opium War To The May Fourth Movement (Chinese Edition)

From the Opium War to the May Fourth Movement depicts some significant historical events between 1840 and 1919. The author HU SHENG innovatively elaborates some well-known events, acknowledging the positive effects of Taiping Rebellion, Yihetuan Rebellion on the historical development, summarizing the failure of Xinhai Revolution, discussing the importance of May Fourth Movement. It illustrates the features of the Chinese society and the relationship among all levels of society, displays the suffering of old China and peoples rebellion and explores a new way for historical research.
