

For one Sorcerer, ten thousand Sorceresses The Sorceress the only physician the people knew Mediaeval Reign of Terror The Sorceress was the offspring of popular despair And Satan was hers Satan, Prince of this World, Healer, Reformer Satan's school and its professors: Sorceress, Shepherd, Hangman His decline and fall. PRENGER said, before 1500: We should speak of the Heresy of the Sorceresses, not of the Sorcerers; the latter are of small account. So another writer under Louis XIII.: For one Sorcerer, ten thousand Sorceresses. Nature makes them Sorceresses, the genius peculiar to woman and her temperament. She is born a creature of Enchantment. In virtue of regularly recurring periods of exaltation, she is a Sibyl; in virtue of love, a Magician. By the fineness of her intuitions, the cunning of her wiles often fantastic, often beneficent she is a Witch, and casts spells, at least and lowest lulls pain to sleep and softens the blow of calamity. All primitive peoples start alike; this we see again and again in the accounts given by travellers. Man hunts and fights.
