

David in Struggle and Song: Guidelines for discussions on the life of David (Unravel the Truth Book 5)

The Experiences and Psalms of David
This booklet takes a sample of ten incidents from the life of David, and illustrates the events with the songs that are attributed to each occasion. In addition to the historical aspects and the feelings of David, there are questions concerning our personal relationships with God and his effect on our daily lives. These ten discussion outlines are intended for small group meetings, but may be used individually or in large groups. Leaders notes are provide for each discussion. Pam and Mike Collier have travelled extensively in the course of their careers, and they and their family have lived in Hong Kong, Zimbabwe and north China, where they have sought to identify with the local cultures and church activities wherever possible. Both of the authors are teachers who specialise in English and Electronic Engineering respectively.
